NATUROPATHY:

Naturopathy is an art and science of healthy living. It is one of most effective, evidence based, drug less and natural healing system. Naturopathy is recognized and well accepted as an independent system of medicine. Naturopathy advocates aiding human system to remove the cause of disease from human body for curing diseases. Naturopathy is based on its own principle and philosophy with well-established scientific base. Naturopathy follows "Unity of diseases and Unity of cure" as its major principle and tries to enhance our body's natural recuperative power in healing process. Naturopathy cures patients suffering from chronic ailments in comparatively less time than any other forms of medicine. Naturopathy treats the person as whole and thereby treatment through all the aspects like physical, mental, social and spiritual level give complete cure with least or no side effects. According to naturopathy "Food is only the medicine", no external medications are used. Some important treatments of naturopathy are

- MASSAGE THERAPY
- PHYSIOTHERAPY
- YOGA THERAPY
- DIET THERAPY
